ASK FIRST

Most Kentucky streams flow through private property; meaning the stream bottom is private property. All persons must obtain permission to enter private lands for any reason, including fishing. You may float a stream across private property without trespassing provided you legally obtained access to the stream (permission or a public access site). Any person engaged in hunting, fishing or trapping upon either public or private property shall not commit any acts of depredation, such as setting fires, destruction of fences, shooting livestock or poultry, theft or cause damage to any property in any manner.

Anglers and boaters enjoy Kentucky's scenic beauty.

Safe Boater Certification Required

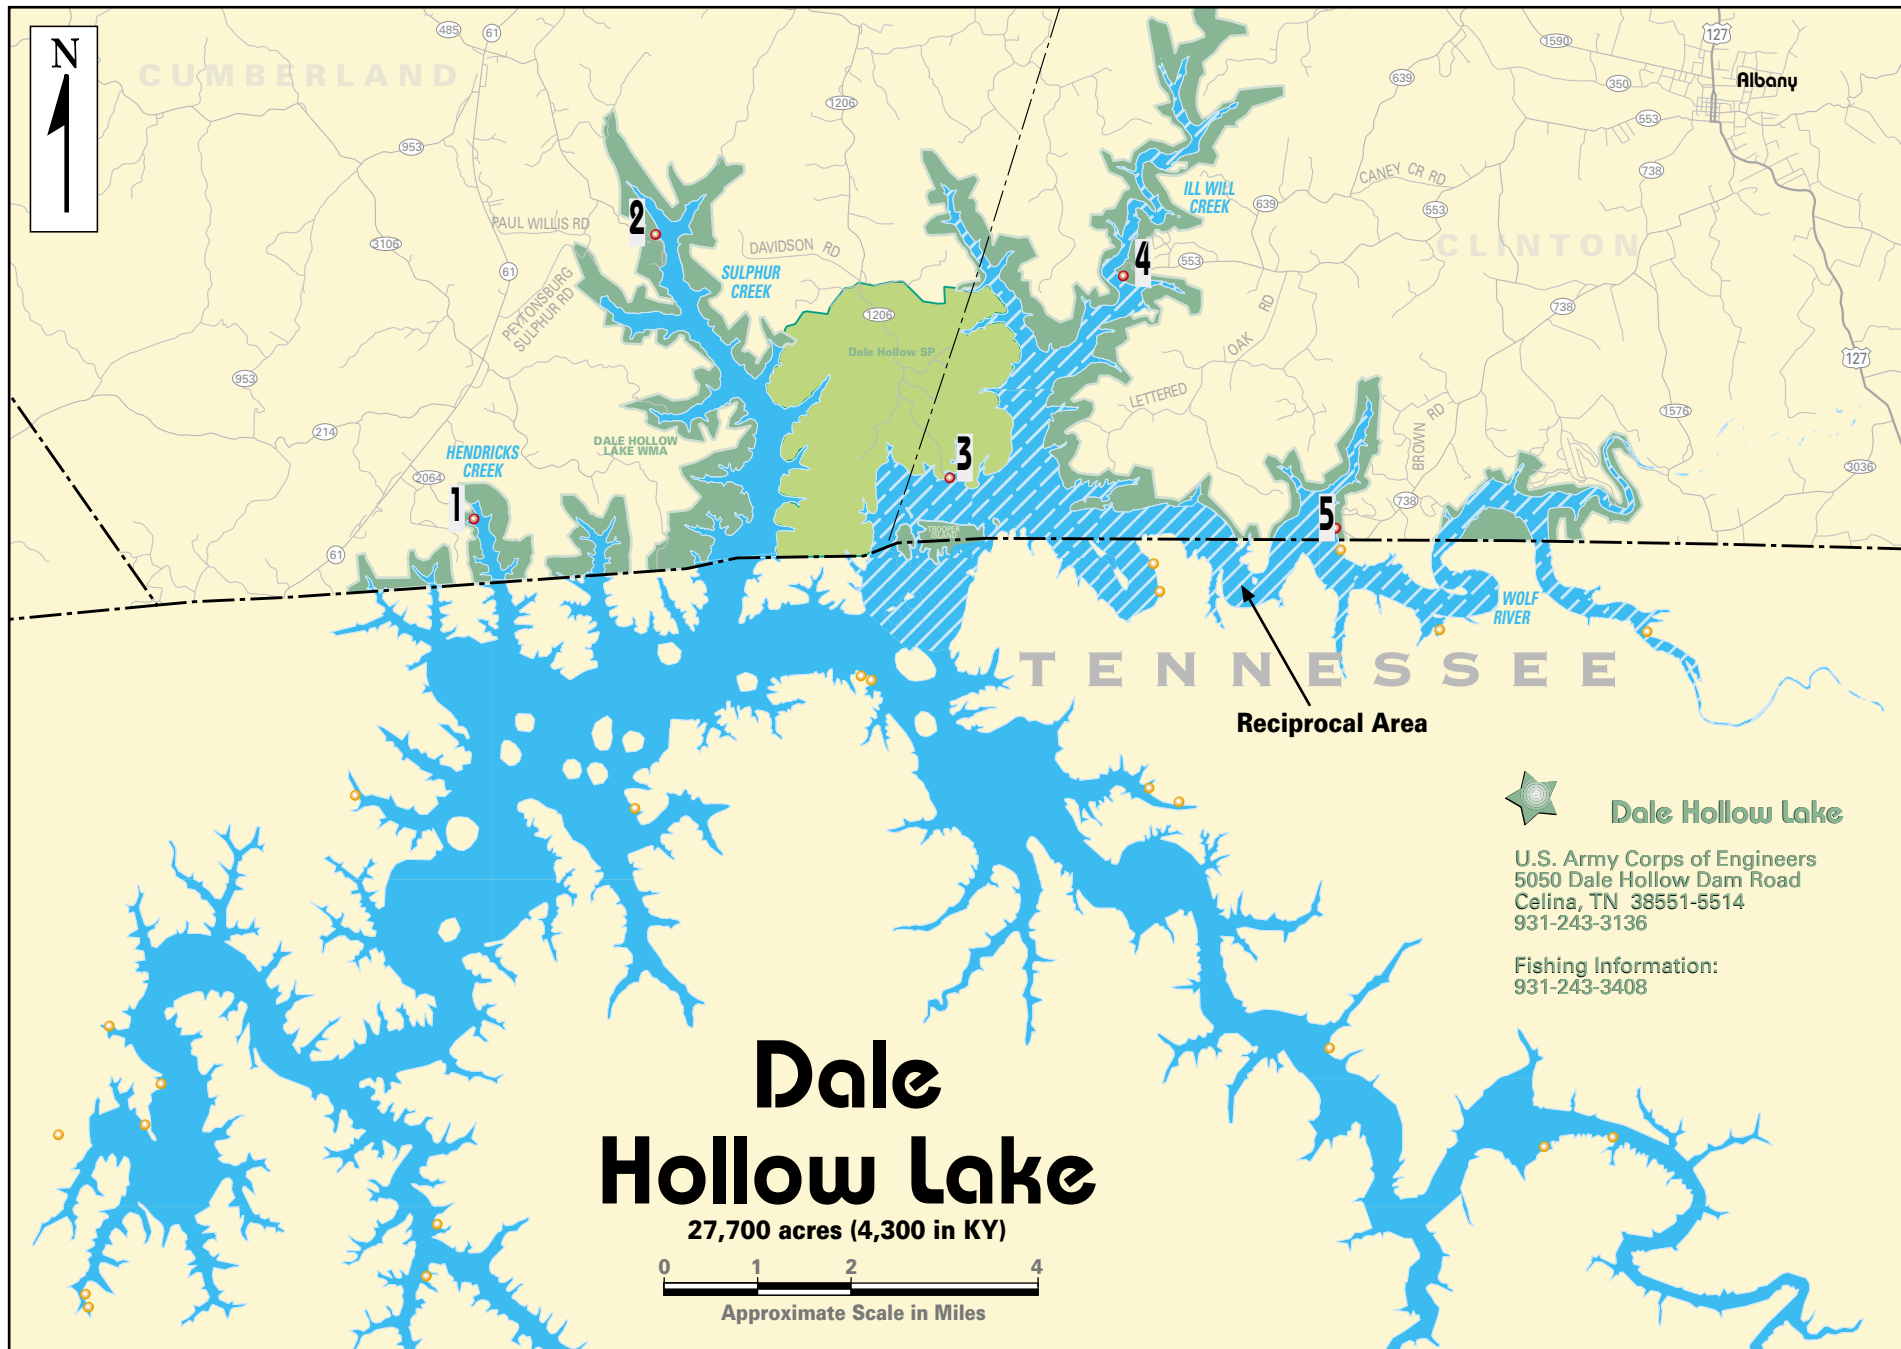

The Kentucky General Assembly passed the Safe Boating Act in 1998 to improve safety conditions on Kentucky's public waterways.

The Safe Boating Act requires boaters 12-17 years of age to be safe-boater certified or be accompanied by a person who is safe-boater certified or a person who is 18 years or older when operating a boat 10 horsepower or greater.

Boaters can become certified by passing a 50-question test given by the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources (KDFWR) or by passing boating courses given by the U.S. Coast Guard, Coast Guard Auxiliary or U.S. Power Squadron. To find a testing site in your county or to receive a study manual call the KDFWR at 1-800-858-1549 Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. (Eastern time)

Dale Hollow Lake Reciprocal Area

Anglers may use either a Tennessee or a Kentucky sport fishing license while fishing in the Wolf River arm of Dale Hollow Lake. This includes the Illwill Creek embayment beginning at a line crossing the Wolf River at its mouth where it joins the Obey River and the main part of the lake.

Anglers must obey the regulations of the state in which they are licensed. Kentucky residents must have a Kentucky license.
